DATE: 1999-10-08

STATUS: For distribution to ISO/IEC JTC 1/SC 27

ISO (the International Organization for Standardization) and IEC (the International Electrotechnical Commission) form the specialised system for worldwide standardisation. National bodies that are members of ISO or IEC participate in the development of International Standards through technical committees established by the respective organisation to deal with particular fields of technical activity.

In the field of information technology, ISO and IEC have established a joint technical committee, ISO/IEC JTC 1. Its subcommittee ISO/IEC JTC 1/ SC 27 is responsible for security techniques.

ISO/IEC JTC 1/SC 27 wishes to inform <body> that it is in the process of developing a document called "A framework for IT security assurance". This document will provide a framework relating existing methods for generating assurance in the field of IT security. ISO/IEC JTC 1/SC 27 attaches the most recent working draft for the technical report ISO/IEC JTC 1/SC 27 N 2334r and requests/asks that <body> examines it and provides input as appropriate.

This applies in particular to <section/topic/aspect>.
